Where the party involved in the dispute is a business or commercial entity (e.g. a sole proprietor, company, close corporation, partnership, trust, or body corporate) and not you as Policyholder in your personal and private capacity, it will be considered business-related.
- d. LAW FOR ALL: LIPCO Group (Pty) Ltd, which is the Underwriting Manager and legal services administrator.

4.2 Policy Inception

- a) Should you not pay your first premium, your policy will not incept.
- b) We will attempt to debit your account in the following month:

 - ii. If we are then unsuccessful at debiting your account for these two consecutive months your policy will not incept.

4.3 Missed Payment

- a) Should you miss a premium after your policy's inception date, we will give you a period of 31 days (the "grace period") from the premium due date within which to pay your missed premium.
- b) We may attempt to double debit your account to make up for your missed premium.
- c) If you have not paid your outstanding premium by the end of the grace period, we will continue to collect your premiums as agreed, but please note that you will not be eligible for cover under the Legal Cost Cover Benefit for any legal matter where the cause of action (or any part thereof) occurred within a month for which we have not received your premium.

We further reserve the right to withdraw from any cost cover/ litigation matter still pending where the cause of action arose in the month for which payment was reversed/disputed.

Keep in Mind: Your monthly premium is subject to annual review. That means we may adjust your premium due to external factors (such as inflation, increases in legal fees or operational expenses). Please don't worry! If you aren't able to afford the new premium, let us know and a Sales Representative will get in touch about more affordable options.
